

Prioritization survey with members

2017

Online Survey: IPPOSI priorities for 2017-2018

- Open from Dec. 15, 2016 – Jan 20, 2017
- Total Responses: 71
- 88% identified as IPPOSI Members

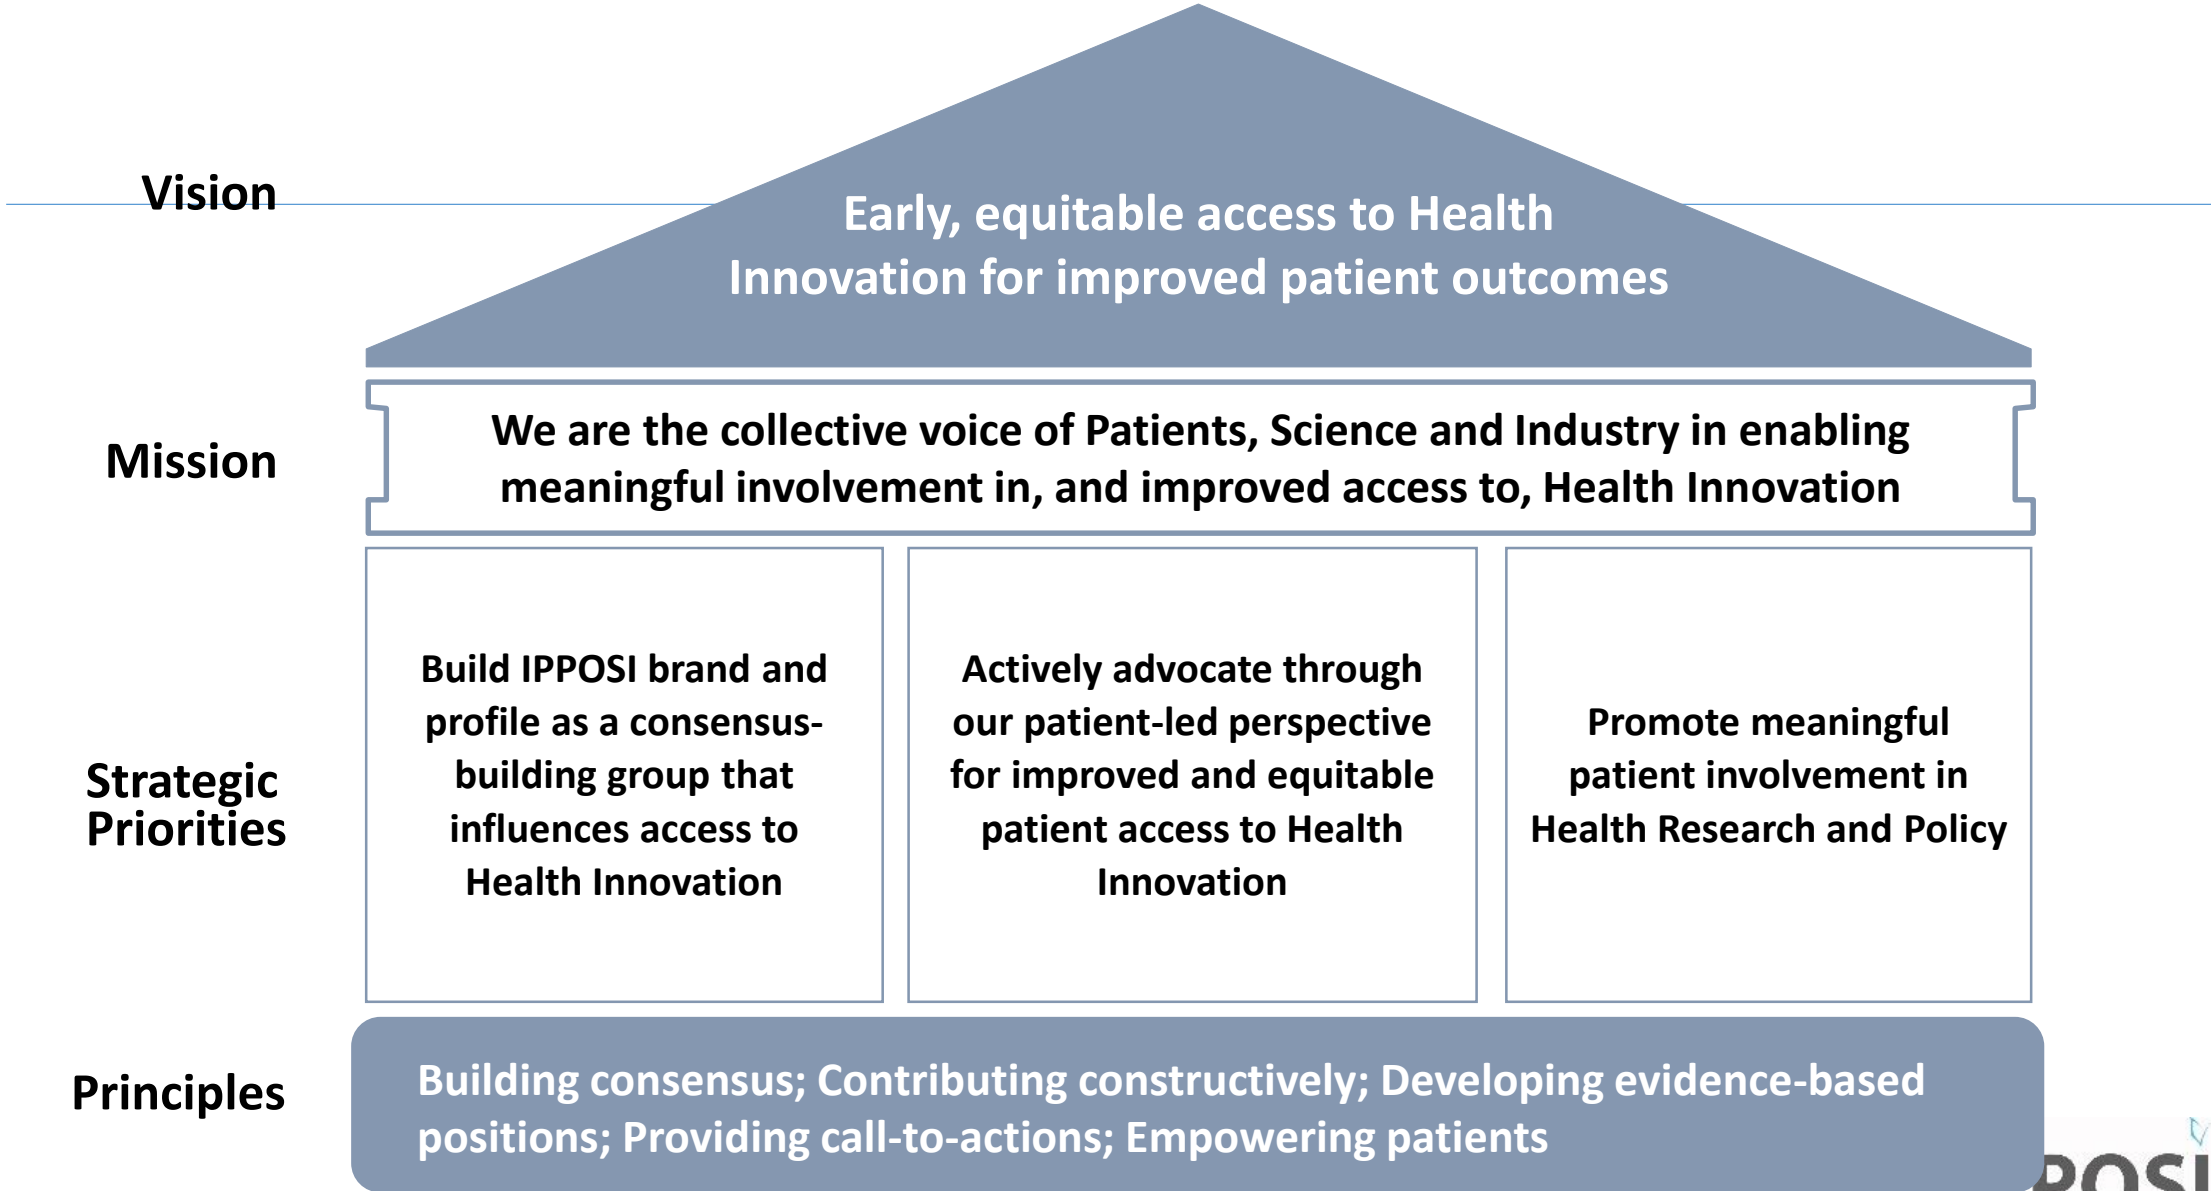

Answer choices	Responses (%)	Responses (Number)
Patient or Patient Organisation	30%	22
Researcher or Medical Professional	26.75%	19
Company	25.35%	18
Gov. Body or Funding agency	2.8%	2
Representative Body	4.2%	3
Other	9.8%	7

59 different organisations / members

Selection inserted into wordcloud:

IPPOSI High Level Strategy (2016-2020)

Q1: IPPOSI has agreed three strategic priorities for the period up to the end of 2020. Which priority would you prefer IPPOSI to focus on for 2017-2018?

Answered: 69 Skipped: 2

Q2: From the list below, indicate your three preferred interest areas for IPPOSI to focus on in 2017-2018? (max of 3 selections)

If the topic(s) you are interested in are not listed, please describe them in the box below:

- Personalized Medicine
- Integrated care
- Measure and address inequalities in health service provision
- Campaign governments for more funding for basic medical research
- Support the wholistic patient journey
- Linking with Palliative care PPI opportunities
- Defining the meaning of IPPOSI membership (accountability, ethical)
- Legal Training for members